COMMODORE'S NOTES

Congratulation to Club Champion, Henk Muis! Black Knight and crew entered the Eastern Yachting Circuit at Fairhaven Y.C. in Little Sodus Bay, N.Y. In the Middle Distance Race they brought home the Young's Trophy for first place. Out of a fleet of nine in three additional course races Black Knight placed 2nd, 3rd and 3rd. Well done!

The season has brought us excellent boating weather with enough rain to keep our lawns pampered while we play hookie so don't hesitate to participate in the activities your club has to offer.

Series racing on Thursday night continues to bring out old and new crew members for short distance races and after race socializing complete with bubbly and barbeque.

Civic Holiday Cruise Captain Bruce Fairbairn invites all interested parties to join the C.B.Y.C. Fleet for the first weekend adventure in August.

When leaving your home club to visit another, don't forget to check the reciprocal book, leave your plans with the marina, carry your club membership card and fly your CBYC burgee - now available through our Regalia chair, Mike Mastrianni on Cara Mia or at 389-1654.

The Simcoe Island Race, the second long distance race of the season will be held on Saturday, August 9th - a full day of sailing with competition thrown in for good measure!

Hub, Mich and the Collins Bay Marina staff have once again outdone themselves with wonderful landscaping around the area of the new Sail School dock. It looks fabulous! We appreciate the aesthetic pleasantries from the landscaping to fresh flowers in the loo.

See you on the water,

Susan Knapp

CANADA DAY CRUISE

The weekend started out as a bit of a disappointment with only three boats participating. Revelation, Pyewacket and Alpine Star left Collins Bay Saturday morning with the hope of sailing to Waupoos, but the poor wind conditions resulted in an anchorage in Prinyers Cove where the Simones' hosted the Wagners and Fairbairns for a very pleasant happy hour.

The Sunday morning wind was not great and the fleet split up in three directions. Pyewacket headed home, Revelation carried on to Waupoos, and Alpine Star went to Kingston to "See the sights". Monday brought a much improved situation. Somehow we don't need much prodding to visit the Krugers in Parrot Bay. Clockwork Orange brought Dennis & Louise Williamson in first followed by Bruce & Alda Fairbairn on Pyewacket. They were followed by Bob and Marilyn Wellwood (Mary C), Lori & Angie Simone, (Revelation), Carl & Pat Boe (Aeneas), Bill & Mary Learmonth (Another Midnight), with daughter Charity who is stationed on the Coast Guard Cutter "Simcoe". Doug and Flo traded in their boat for a car like the Cohrs, Adams, Worthys Sue and Amy Knapp, and Rita Tomkow. Our wonderful hosts, Paul and Desiree made sure everyone had a good time. During the evening we had a short but pleasant visit from Bonnie Wright and her daughters. For the new folks in the club, Bob Wright was the first Commodore and although living and working in the USA, comes back to visit now and again. Hub and Michelle arrived late (well some people have to work you know!) with the news that Thom Tomkow was about to arrive home. The party probably ended a little sooner than planned as several boats and land yachts went over to the marina to welcome him home. He was obviously happy to be back where Rita could provide some much needed TLC. We ended the weekend with a thumbnail sketch of Thom's travels in the Clubhouse. All in all a great week end.

Thank you to Peter Dodd of Windreka II for responding positively to my request for a Collins Bay Mixer Editor in 1998. I hope you will give him the co-operation you gave me in submission of pertinent articles and information of interest to our club members. I have not received many comments regarding my inadvertant change of our newsletters' name from "Collins Mixer" to "Collins Bay Mixer." Would appreciate feed back.
